We must humbly admit that our sins nailed Jesus to the wood of the cross just as surely as the ignorant soldiers of Rome. He hangs there to make amends for our sins. We know that their weight almost crushed Our Lord. He "became sin" in St. Paul's powerful description. Yet, by God's grace, we can share in the triumph of the Third Day. In a very real way, we might even claim to be "always on Jesus' mind," The question follows like day follows night: "Is Do we take advantage of the big and small ways that life offers

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson Sweet sonnets and lovely songs have been written in which one partner tells his/her beloved other that "you're always on my mind." That's how love affects thought patterns, no matter one's age. It is a fit subject for wonder and praise. An intimate thing. A beautiful human thing. Today we are allowed to "overhear" Our Lord, through the me-Mass—in the lives of all Catholics.
