ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILA. TELEVISED MASS

Every Sunday, at 5:30AM on Channel 6-WPVI TV, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia celebrates Sunday Mass, which is broadcast through the courtesy of Channel 6-WPVI.

Prayer for Our Nation at Election Time

O ever faithful God of boundless Love and deep Peace, we turn to you at this critical time in our country's history.

Just as you led us through the dry deserts of old, the terrible wars of past and present, so now we call upon your powerful providence and Holy Spirit to revive

DEVOTED CHARITY in our world grown cold,
CREATIVE HOPE in our world grown helplessly chaotic,
LIVING CHARITY and DEEP PEACE in our world grown so violent and divided.

Ever faithful God of Boundless Love and deep Peace, Hear our prayer for all those running for public office, Especially for the Office of President.

Bless them all with wisdom, goodness, and openness to God's grace to mend our broken world and endangered life.

Our Blessed Lady, patroness of the United States, And Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us!

Sister Patricia Dailey, IHM

Our Lady of Confidence (OLC) believes that every student is a gift from God and sent to us to love, nurture, protect, and respect. They offer an education that will impart the skills needed for students to succeed in school and the workplace. Many families have thrived due to the specialized education plan that touches students to reach their full potential! Please enjoy this poignant quote from an OLC family! "My son Finn is 6 years old – he is a rambunctious, fun-loving little boy who also happens to have Down Syndrome. He has no idea that he's disabled, and he wouldn't want it any other way. He doesn't let his disabilities hold him back. Finn attends Our Lady of Confidence School, one of the three Schools of Special Education in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. I am a Catholic School teacher, so it was very important to my wife and I that Finn receives a Catholic education. Finn loves going to school every day. He and his classmates are treated with respect and dignity. It takes a special kind of person to dedicate their life to a mission, and that's what the school provides. This is a welcoming, safe place that values our children. They deserve to have the best life possible because they are God's creation. The Catholic Charities Appeal makes all this possible. Any donation will really help make a difference. These children are not always given a fair chance, and by supporting the Appeal, you are providing them with a safe place to learn and grow in their Catholic faith."

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Sometimes in life knowing what questions to ask makes all the difference. Take for example your question to the specialist doctor: "Is my condition life threatening?" Or to the local grocer: "Is this really fresh produce?" Or lastly, to the new car dealer: "How long is the warranty?" You get the idea.

Once upon a long-ago day, in a far-off country, a young Jewish scholar asked the equally young rabbi we know to be the Son of God a most interesting question: "Which is the first and greatest commandment?" We less than innocent readers of the Gospel want to know the answer also. After all, we must admit our sins against several commandments every time we go to confession.

Fortunately for that Scribe and us as well, he got his answer. So well-known is it that even non-believers are likely to have heard it. In loose translation it is "Love God with everything you've got." But then Jesus quickly added an unexpected second command, the "flip side" of the first, if you will: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

That addition was a bit of a surprise to the unnamed Scribe. I can only imagine his facial expression when he heard it. Most of his life was dominated by the rules of obeying the Most High God. He could permit himself to ponder much abstract thinking. Arguments with others of his kind. "Neighbors" never figured into the discussion. Jesus changed all that for him.

But the whole matter comes right back at us as we read the gospel given to us ultimately by the Holy Spirit. Sure, we want to honor the God who made us with all our minds, hearts, souls and bodies. But what about that unsettling "Part 2" that Jesus proposes? This "neighbor" designation doesn't just apply to the residents next door to us, although that's a good place to start. But what about the neighbor who doesn't look like you, perhaps with a different skin color? The one who doesn't speak English, or who eats from a different menu and smells a much? Or who favors a different candidate for office than you do? Do you mean to tell me that I must love him or her with the same fervor as I love myself? Yes, yes and yes again!

Of course, there are levels of love. Intimacy is not required. Love here means that we must will his or her good. But I must reach above and beyond a passing will to be Jesus inserted that little word "as" in His statement. "As" you love yourself. We all know the love we bear for the person who looks back at us in the mirror.

I think it's fair to say that true Christianity is one of the toughest religions to practice on the planet. Indeed, "practice" becomes the watchword here because it takes a long time for most of us to acquire our right to the name. Fortunately, there are wonderful exceptions, whom we call "saints." Some of them became such at a young age. Others lived in holiness over lives. We honored them all just last Friday on All Saints' Day.

Buoyed by our Holy Communion with the Lord at Mass, we can live for the day when we will be among their number, "when the saints go marching in."

Meanwhile, we can remember this about neighboring: "A good neighbor is one who will watch your vacation stides all evening without telling you that she has been there too."

God love you and give you His peace.
