CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

(September to May)
Children, ages 3 to 9, have opportunity to participate in Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 11:30 am Mass. The children will hear the Word of God in a way that speaks to their age level and participate in an interactive homily.

Anyone who plans to have their child baptized is asked to call the Rectory to make arrangements.

(Registration in the parish is required. If you have not already registered, please go to our website: www.sacredheartchurchsp.com to complete your registration.) Parents are required by Canon Law to attend a Pre-Jordan Class prior to the Baptism. These classes will take place at the Rectory by appointment only. Baptisms may be held on any Sunday once the Pre-Jordan Class is completed.

Sponsors for Baptism and Confirmation:

Anyone asked to be a Godparent/Sponsor should contact the Rectory regarding their Letter of Eligibility.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him w humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILA. TELEVISED MASS

Prayer for Our Nation at Election Time

O ever faithful God of boundless Love and deep Peace, we turn to you at this critical time in our country's history. Just as you led us through the dry deserts of old, the terrible wars of past and present, so now we call upon your powerful providence and Holy Spirit to revive

DEVOTED CHARITY in our world grown cold, CREATIVE HOPE in our world grown helplessly chaotic, LIVING CHARITY and DEEP PEACE in our world grown so violent and divided.

Ever faithful God of Boundless Love and deep Peace, Hear our prayer for all those running for public office, Especially for the Office of President.

God's grace with wisdom, goodness, and openness to Bless the all to mend our broken world and endangered life.

Our Blessed Lady, patroness of the United States, And Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us!

Sister Patricia Dailey, IHM

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

As we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, we reflect on the lives of those whose holiness and faith continue to inspire us. The saints remind us of our shared calling—to serve one another, especially those most in need.

Let us honor their example and consider how we might embody their spirit of charity and love in our lives. Through acts of kindness and compassion, we bring the hope of Christ to those around us.

The Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) unites us in addressing the critical needs of many of our brothers and sisters face within our local community. CCA provides vital support for our retired and sick priests, ensuring they receive the care and dignity they deserve after a lifetime of dedication to our local Church.

The Appeal also supports evangelization, education, and social services—outreach that goes beyond daily needs to build a stronger future, enriching minds, bodies, and spirits.

With your help, we can ensure that nearly one million individuals facing challenges this year receive the compassion and care they need.

As we honor the saints' legacy of compassion, we invite you to join us in uplifting the lives of those in need through the Catholic Charities Appeal. Your gift provides essential resources to the most vulnerable among us, reflecting the selfless love the saints embodied. Together, let us be instruments of God's mercy and, as always, Give Hope to All.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

When most of us think of an "observatory" I venture we picture a large domed building erected on a mountain, enclosing a telescope built to study the stars and planets. Admittedly there are other kinds of observatories used to study terrestrial and marine events. So, we also have them for studying climatology, geophysics, oceanography and volcanology. But outer space probing is likely the most appealing model.

Of course, we need only our human eyes to observe each other. But what if human eyes were to be coupled with the divine? Then we would have the most unique set for observing everyone. Only Jesus had those.

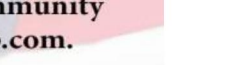

In today's Gospel passage, St. Mark presents the sharp contrast that Jesus observed watching Temple donors. He noted the hypocritical scribes making a great show. But He was taken by the poor widow making her contribution. With His divine eyes working with the human, He "saw" unbounded generosity in that lady's donation. He as "Master" then pointed that out to His disciples that day. He still points it out to us today.

No doubt there is wonderful generosity among us today. None of the charitable works of the Church could be accomplished without it. But it is well for us to remember that generosity is not limited to money. There is also a generosity of spirit. Call it a mindset that acknowledges that since everything we have comes from God, why cling to it as if it comes from ourselves? If we don't think that way we're headed for trouble. It could even keep heaven closed to us.

Anyone observing the way we live should recognize that we are Christians. Our "Observer in Chief" is Jesus Christ, our loving God. He is not only the One ultimately responsible for it all, but whose grace infuses us with His spirit. Unless we choose to block it.

Once upon a time, a family sat down at the breakfast table following Sunday morning Mass. "The homily was boring today," said the teenage son. "Yeah, could you believe how Father stumbled over the reading of the Gospel?" his sister chimed in. "I've got to admit it was an uninspiring day," said Mother. "The choir was terrible." Finally, father, showing his leadership, said, "Hush, you guys. Quit complaining. What do you expect for three dollars?"

God love you and give you His generosity.

We invite you to sign up for online giving in support of our parish community www.sacredheartchurchsp.com.

Your contributions are received with a grateful heart.

Parish Giving

Parish Giving offers secure flexible online giving for our parishioners who would like to make their donations online using a credit card or bank transfer. You never have to bring cash or checks to church. Giving electronically also helps the church save money and plan the budget. Check out the website listed for benefits and details.

"Loaves & Fishes" The cupboard is located on Third Street between the Rectory steps and the Rectory Garden.

Please consider giving some non-perishable items to stock our Pantry. Suggested items: peanut butter, jelly, soup, tuna fish, cereal, crackers, etc. A small donation from many cankers a long way. You can add non-perishable food directly to the pantry anytime you'd like! Thank you to all the SHJ Parishioners and Friends who regularly give to the food pantry. Take when you need, give when you can!
