CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

Celebrating National Vocation Awareness Week
National Vocation Awareness Week (November 3-9, 2024) invites us to reflect on the lasting contributions of those who have devoted their lives to serving God's people and how we can show our gratitude in return.

Among them are the 129 retired priests of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. For decades, these men have celebrated the sacraments, offered spiritual guidance, and stood with us during life's most significant moments. Now, in their time of need, it is both our privilege and responsibility to support them.

By giving to the Catholic Charities Appeal, you provide essential resources such as healthcare, housing, and daily necessities, ensuring these retired priests receive the dignity and care they deserve. Your generosity not only honors their lifetime of service but also strengthens the bonds of our Catholic community.

This week, let us unite as a Catholic family to express our gratitude and solidarity. Please consider making a gift today.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson
Two words; six letters are all it takes to know that the movie's over. If you actually go back to see one in a theater, you know that then the house lights come up; the audience stands and steadily makes its return to reality. But the Scriptures, much more important for our lives, at this time of year bring up a somewhat frightening question: "What comes with the end of reality?" To answer that one best, we rightly turn to the one Person who knows the answer to all but the date. We hear Him today talk about a darkening sun and a disappearing moon, accompanied by falling stars and a quaking universe. Even if we're not told the day, it's a safe bet that most of us would prefer to be somewhere else when that happens!

Why would Our Lord tell us these things? And why would His Church proclaim the unpleasant truths today? Well, like a loving and practical Mother, the Church wants us to think of the future when we make some of our decisions in life.

Right now, we have come near to the end of the Church's Liturgical year. You might say that next Sunday's Feast of Christ the King is the Church's "New Year's Eve." We will have lived another year of reflecting on the all-important life of Christ in the Sunday celebrations. Today we are invited to ponder the end time of the world as we know it. Implied is another reminder that you and I are not "in charge."

All of this is not meant to scare us, or to become our mind. Just realistic. Especially so when it comes to the matter of our lives. The Church is saying in the name of her mystical Head, Jesus Christ, that it would really be foolish to live and act as if this life of ours on earth is not going to end. Even if we are not around when the world ends.

Thinking about our own end has some benefits. It keeps us humble. You must know that despite all your many accomplishments here below, many of which can make you justly proud, it will all come to an end. Knowing that can put a check on our spending selfishly when we have the obligation to aid the poor among us. Today just happens to be the "World Day of the Poor" so named by Pope Francis. Perfect timing for sure.

Meanwhile, we have the truth that Jesus, God's Son, stands triumphant in Heaven. He offers His blessed assurance that on the other side of death lies a new world, replete with an indescribable joy that never ends. Here and now, he keeps His promise to be with us. He goes so far as to feed us with Himself in the Holy Eucharist. That nourishment helps us face our future energized with hope and confidence. So, all kidding aside, we could say quite truthfully that "Death is not a period, but a comma in the story of life."

God love you and give you His peace.

IN RESPONSE TO THE CALL OF POPE FRANCIS, ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA TO LAUNCH JUBILEE YEAR 2025 Local celebration of the Universal Church's year-long observance of the Jubilee Year, Pilgrims of Hope, begins December 29, 2024. In response to Pope Francis' call to the Catholic Church around the world, parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will begin the local observance of the Jubilee Year 2025, with the theme Pilgrims of Hope.

All are invited to participate in events of the Holy Year in their homes, in their local parishes, and at shrines throughout the region, and at the Mother Church of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia—the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul.

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, Archbishop of Philadelphia, will celebrate the opening of the Jubilee Year with Mass at the Cathedral. That celebration of the holy Eucharist will mark the culmination of a pilgrimage of families traveling from throughout the Archdiocese region to the Cathedral.

Sunday, December 29, 2024 (Holy Family Sunday)
11:00 a.m. Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul 18103 Street and Benjamin Franklin Parkway Philadelphia, PA 19103
The Mass will be broadcast via live streaming video at https://vimeo.com/event/2470138. Background the Jubilee Year 2025 will be marked by four pillars in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

• Pilgrimage: All will be invited to take part in a prayerful journey from Philadelphia to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.; to shrines located throughout the Archdiocese; and, in circumstances, to the Eucharist: An effort to rejuvenate the celebration of 40 Hours devotion in one parish on a weekly basis.

• Penance: Certain churches and shrines in the Archdiocese will be identified for the reception of the Sacrament of Penance, in satisfaction for obtaining an indulgence. The gift of an indulgence provides the faithful—through the sacraments and good works—the remission of any punishment due to their sins upon death. Missionaries of Mercy priests will be key participants for hearing confessions. These eleven priests in the Archdiocese have been commissioned by Pope Francis to emphasize the duty shared by all priests to "hear confessions and preach on behalf of and promote the Sacrament of Reconciliation." They are a visible expression of the mercy of God.

• Observation: The 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea will be observed in 2025. The first ecumenical council of the Church, called in 325, developed the core statement of doctrinal beliefs held by Catholic, Orthodox and most Protestant Christians and known today as the Nicene Creed. It affirmed the equality of the Son (Jesus) with God the Father as being of "one substance." Accordingly, a local ecumenical service with "Eastern Rite churches" will be planned for the spring.

The goal of the Jubilee Year 2025 is to offer pilgrims in their own local area opportunities for reconciliation, indulgences, and prayerful opportunities to receive the sacraments, strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ, and enrich their lifelong faith journey. As Pope Francis stated in his letter announcing this Jubilee Year, "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee year can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a resource to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire."
