well within the "comfort zone" of his headquarters, surrounded by protective guards, ready to punish severely anyone who would challenge his leadership. Recall that his wife has urged him several times to steer clear of any involvement with the man from Nazareth. Now that very man is standing in front him. Behind him, Pilate can hear the roar of the crowd outside, drummed up by the enemies of this prisoner. What should he do? The Jewish priests despise the man. They control the mob. In Pilate's mind, he knows Caesar is watching the whole episode. So, Pilate decides to ask Jesus the key question of his petty concern: "Are you a king?" The whole idea seems ludicrous, considering the beaten condition of the man Jesus before him, His head bleeding from a thorn helmet the brutal Roman soldiers had made

"You say I am a king," answers Jesus, "For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." How I wish we could all hear the tone of that Voice! We could then easily compare and contrast His power with Pilate's pettiness. But more importantly, we could hear the strength and conviction in Christ's voice. We would certainly be encouraged. Why the need for courage? Because there is another crowd just outside the Catholic Church this very day full of hate for God, and anger at us for believing in Him. Anger at us because we are a Son (Jesus) with God the Father as being of "one substance." Accordingly, a local ecumenical service with Eastern Rite churches will be planned for the spring. The goal of the Jubilee Year 2025 is to offer pilgrims in their own local area opportunities for reconciliation, indulgences, and prayerful opportunities to receive the sacraments, strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ, and enrich their lifelong faith journey. As Pope Francis stated in his letter announcing this Jubilee Year, "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting
